- Inventory items are listed under respective venues, we do not move inventory between venues to minimize room for error. The inventory you have access to is the inventory of the venue that you have booked.

- At this time our event department is unable to offer any event inventory setup services. So at this time, setting up and taking down of any BOC inventory is the responsibility of the guest and the party renting them. If there is any damage to the inventory or if any inventory is taken there may be additional charges. If you have any questions, please contact your event coordinator.

This information is to provide thorough clarity, as we hope to be transparent in all of our policies. We are honored to help you host your special event. We always hope to serve our guests well from beginning to end.
